The programme is designed to engage learners of different levels of ability, aged 13 - 21. It can be adapted for pupils in Years 8 - 11, for post-16 learners and University students.

How is it delivered?

The programme is delivered by highly experienced, qualified facilitators, all of whom have enhanced CRB, to groups of 30 students, in a 12 hour programme which can be adapted to suit individual and organisational needs.

Course Overview

The Employability programme guides students through comprehensive Careers Education and Employability Skills offering them the best possible chance of post-education employment success. Responding to the needs of each learner it will raise aspirations and increase attainment levels. Adhering to IAG this programme is mapped to the matrix standard empowering young people to plan and manage their own futures providing comprehensive advice on routes to service providers, labour markets and opportunities - local, regional and national. It actively promotes equality of opportunities and challenges stereotypes.

Aims & objectives

- To better understand the link between education achievement and employment opportunities
- To have increased awareness of the vast range of sectors and careers available
- To be better able to use their strengths whilst managing their weaknesses
- To improve their skills of goal setting, career planning and pathways
- To understand what local and national support is available
- To enhance their abilities to conduct independent research for job, career and educational opportunities
- To produce high quality CVs and job applications
- To have practised interview skills and so be more confident of how to manage this effectively

In summary

During this programme Careers Education is explored in-depth which raises and answers lots of questions for each group and individual learner. It is an individualised, exciting and rewarding process looking at: Lifestyle Choices, Careers and Jobs, Sector Information, Job Description and Person Specification, Employability Skills, CV Writing, Interview Coaching and Job Hunting. This programme is not aimed at providing 1-2-1 guidance but is targeted at teaching the principles of independent career management. Students are empowered to find their own answers and to improve their overall employability.
