

Screen Skills

Course Profile - (Full Day)

One fun-packed workshop, Hundreds of Benefits

Unique to Mediawise, this one day workshop essentially covers 'a day in the life' of a television reporter, and guides pupils through the challenging and sometimes nerve-wracking process of scripting and presenting a television news report. It is closely linked to the National Curriculum, and develops genuine self-esteem while greatly improving your students' presentation and communication skills.

Who's it for?

- Screenskills (full day) is our flagship workshop for children in Key Stage 2 & 3
- Groups of up to 30 students at a time (larger groups are possible by arrangement)
- All-day workshop including lunch and breaks

What they'll learn

- Techniques to enhance development and presentation of their learning platform
- How to present information effectively and confidently
- Improved speaking and listening skills
- Interview methods that will develop useful interpersonal qualities
- How to write, construct and deliver an engaging news report
- Creative camerawork and post-production
- An appreciation of television news and its importance in daily life
- Teamwork and co-operation with classmates
- Global thinking - seeing and understanding the bigger picture

Student feedback

"It was an amazing experience to learn from a professional presenter"

"This fantastic day has taught us many skills for the future"

"Before now I thought that news was dull and boring but now I look at it in a different way"

Teaching Staff Feedback

"All pupils, of all abilities, benefited from this experience. It was very varied, active and hands-on"

"Year 5/6 engaged fully in a stimulating, informative and challenging day. All the pupils have applied their newly-found skills with great enthusiasm across the whole curriculum"

What you will receive...

- Pre-course information and direction for teaching staff
- An entertaining, hands-on, highly interactive workshop for students AND staff
- Delivered by an experienced television Presenter, Reporter or Correspondent
- Post Course Key information and terminology Guide including Key overview slides to reinforce ideas
- Follow-on ideas to practice and embed the techniques

Prices from £350 per workshop. Please contact Mediawise for further information and an individual quote based on location and class size.

Office: 01892 665017 (M-F 09.00 - 17.00) Mobile: 07967 276194